PRIMARY WINNERS
WHERE CONTESTS
WERE FOUGHT OUT

Congressman Oglesby Wins
Over Hamilton by Close
Vote in the Twenty-Fourth.

In most of the Congressional and legislative districts there was no opposition to regular organization candidates. Where contests were made in Greater New York the winners

were as follows:
For Congress: Second District,
Queens, C. P. Caldwell, Democrat;
Third District, Kings, Francis P.
Bent, Democrat; Tenth District,
Kings, Frank Wasserman, Democrat;
Eleventh District, Manhattan and Brooklyn, Daniel J. Riordan, Democrat; Twenty-second District, Manhattan and Bronx, Henry Brucker,
Democrat; Twenty-third District,
Bronx, Daniel C. Oliver, Democrat;
Twenty-fourth District, Bronx and Westchester, Arthur W. Lawrence,
Republican; W. R. Oglesby, Democrat, who won by a close vote from James A. Hamilton.

For State Senate: Fifth District,
Kings, William J. Heffernan, Democrat; Seventh District, Kings, Daniel J. Carroll, Democrat.

For Assembly: New York County—Twenty-first District, James J.
Wilson, Democrat; Thirtieth District,
Timothy F. Gould, Democrat; Thirty-
fourth District, M. Baldwin Fertig, Democrat; Kings County—Ninth District, E. F. Hill, Republican; F. B.
Burr, Democrat; Thirteenth District,
Morgan T. Donnelly, Democrat;

Fourteenth District, J. P. La Frenz,
Democrat; Fifteenth District, John A.
McAllister, Democrat; Twentieth District, A. C. Flanagan, Republican.

In up-State districts George A.
Lunn, former Socialist Mayor of Albion, won the Democratic nomination for Congress. George W.
Fairchild, present Republican member of Congress from Oneonta, succeeded in winning a renomination after a hard fought contest with State Senator Samuel A. Jones. Senator Archie D.
Sanders took a Congressional nomination away from Representative H. D.
Danforth of Rochester, who has been in Congress three terms.

George F. Thompson, Public Service Commission Investigator, was renominated for State Senator in the Niagara County district after a contest.

TO-DAY'S PARALYSIS
FIGURES ENCOURAGING

Only Eighteen New Cases as Compared With Thirty-five Yesterday—Same Death Total.

The Board of Health report on infantile paralysis to-day showed eighteen new cases and ten deaths.
This was a decrease of seventeen
from yesterday's report of new cases,
but the number of deaths was the same as yesterday. The comparative report follows:

DEATHS.

To-day Yesterday

Manhattan	1	1
Bronx	4	6
Brooklyn	6	9
Queens	1	0
Rochester	1	0
Total	10	10

NEW CASES.

Manhattan	13
Bronx	2
Brooklyn	6
Queens	1
Rochester	0
Total	18

Total cases to date, 8,816. Total deaths to date, 2,287.

The figures are very encouraging,

said Deputy Commissioner of Health

Hillings.

Despite the legal action taken to compel removal of placards from quarantined premises, the Department of Health will continue to keep the placards on display.

"We feel it is necessary precaution," said Dr. Hillings to-day.

NAVY GETS FIRST CALL
FROM STEEL COMPANIES

Notify Customers Government Orders Will Be First to Be Filled.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 20.—Customers of the Carnegie Steel Company and of other large steel companies in the Pittsburgh district have been notified regarding their early orders for steel delivery in 1917 that in event
the United States Government needs steel for the carrying out of its naval programme as now planned to expand the Navy, it will give the companies
the first choice, and especially in delivery of steel plates and shapes for new naval vessels.

The Carnegie Steel Company, it is authoritatively announced, will make loyalty to the Government its dominating policy. All mills here are running to capacity, with many large orders unfilled.
